Eggs! Eggs! and more eggs for Deltona!

Feb. 23, 2016— The 2016 annual city-wide egg hunt, Eggstravaganza, begins promptly at 10 a.m., March 19, at the Dewey O. Boster Sports Complex, 1200 Saxon Blvd.

The egg hunt is free for all children ages 2 to 10. "Hunters" will be divided into three age categories and should bring their own baskets for gathering eggs. Over 25,000 eggs will be loaded with candy, small toys and some will include mini tickets good for additional prizes.

Parents, don't worry after the mad-dash for the eggs, there's still lots for the children to do. Mr. Bunny will be available for photos so remember to bring a camera. Walgreens will also be available to take photos for you, available online and at Walgreens the next day. The event also features a Magic Show at 10:30 a.m., bounce houses, games, face painting, a bike give-away, a chance to hop on board a City of Deltona Fire Truck and all sorts of good family fun.

For information on Eggstravaganza, call the Deltona Parks & Recreation Department at (386) 878-8900.
